

BERNHARDT CHEERED IN HER DRESSING ROOM

"All France Joyous," She's Told,
"As If Monarchy Again and Babe
Had Been Born to Queen."

STORY, Jan. 16.—The dressing room of the great Sarah Bernhardt was thronged yesterday by French celebrities of all arts and professions, come to congratulate her on having been decorated with the cross of the Legion of Honor. There were shows when one enthusiast said:

"All France is joyous and it is as if it were a monarchy again and the Queen had just given birth to a babe."

In the midst of this celebration Mme. Bernhardt received The World correspondent, to whom she said:

"I ask you, my dear young man, to send my beloved American people all my sincerest thanks for the proofs of admiration which have just come to me from every part of your grand and admirable country. I am touched to tears by the great love they bear for me."
